

ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION
TEACHER INFORMATION
SUMMER IN SERVICE/EMPLOYMENT/CONTINUING EDUCATION 2009

NATURAL RESOURCES CAMP: THE LAND & WATER CONNECTION
*August 3 - August 7, 2009

Teachers are needed from Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's, Talbot, Caroline, Dorchester, Wicomico, Somerset, and Worcester Counties to learn, develop, and implement an environmental education/marine science summer program. Field and classroom activities will be developed and tried out with students in the program. Employment or credit is available for the in service and program.

Positions Available: Teachers at $160 per Day of Camp
Teachers will participate in training sessions and teaching/activity development during program.

Teacher In-service: 1st: July 9, 2009 9:00am to 1:00pm
(tentative) 2nd: July 23, 2009 9:00am to 1:00 pm (if needed)

Student Program Dates: August 3 - August 7, 2009

Accommodations/Meals: Horn Point Environmental Education Center. Participants will sleep in dormitories and meals will be provided in the Dining Hall.

Teacher Responsibilities: Each teacher will: Attend in-service training/ planning sessions, teach students in summer program and be present on overnights to assist with supervision and instruction.

Teacher Qualifications: Be currently employed and plan to continue employment as a teacher in one of the above school systems. Be willing to work in the outdoors and engage in group planning and teaching.

Application Deadline: June 12, 2009. Selected applicants will be notified by June 26, 2009.

To Apply: Write a letter explaining your interest in the program. Include: Current teaching situation, Fields of interest, Background, Experience with active teaching and outdoor education and any special skills.

Address: Jim Newcomb
Dorchester Soil Conservation District
501 Court Lane, Room 213
Cambridge, MD 21613

**** The In-Service days are not set in stone but the date of the camp is. As we get closer the training days will be confirmed.