

WILLIAM METCALF, SOIL CONSERVATIONIST

Bill has been a NRCS Soil Conservationist in the Cecil Service Center since 1997. Prior experience includes being an MDA Conservation Planner in the Baltimore County SCD Office from 1987 to 1997. His background education is a BS degree in Wildlife Resources from West Virginia University. He enjoys solving problems and creating win/ win situations.

When Bill is not working problem solving for our farmers/producers, he enjoys spending time with his wife, Nancy and their two sons, Michael and Cole. All of them enjoy the outdoors, hunting, fishing, boating and camping.
